

On motion by Mr. Turner, the preamble to said resolution was amended, by striking out in the sixth line, the words, "Baltimore and Harford counties," and inserting in lieu thereof, the words "this State."

The said resolution was then read the second time as amended, and assented to.

The hour for taking up the order of the day having arrived, the house proceeded to consider the order of the day, being the bill, reported by Mr. White, from the committee on internal improvement, entitled, A further supplement to the act, entitled, an Act to promote internal improvement, by the construction of a Rail Road from Baltimore to the city of Washington, passed at December session 1830.

On motion by Mr. Merrick, said bill was ordered to lie on the table:

On motion by Mr. Teackle, the house took up for consideration the bill reported by him from the committee on ways and means, entitled a further additional supplement to the act of December session, 1827, chapter 117, entitled, an act to regulate the issuing of licenses to traders, keepers of ordinaries, and others.

Mr. Jenkins moved to amend said bill, by adding at the end thereof, as an additional section, the following.

And be it enacted, That the minimum license imposed by virtue of the last supplement to the original act to which this is a further additional supplement, be, and is hereby reduced to eight dollars.

Mr. Jones moved to amend the amendment proposed by Mr. Jenkins, by adding at the end thereof the following; "to those traders who shall not sell ardent spirits."

Determined in the negative.
